

CALL FOR STAFF APPLICATIONS FOR THE PARTICIPATION ON MOBILITY TO RUSSIAN FEDERATION (STAVROPOL KRAI)

Public call for ATUSS staff mobility for teaching to partner institution through the project KA-171-2022 is opened. The partner institution in the project is FEDERAL STATE AUTONOMOUS EDUCATIONAL INSTITUTION OF HIGHER EDUCATION NORTH-CAUCASUS FEDERAL UNIVERSITY (acronym NCFU) settled in Stavropol Krai in Russian Federation (<https://eng.ncfu.ru/>)

The call is opened from April 5th 2024 till April 30th 2024. Applicants must submit:

- Working contract with ATUSS,
- CV
- Motivation Letter,
- Invitation Letter from NCFU.

For more details about contact to partner's institution, all interested persons can write email to: mobilnost@atuss.edu.rs

Teaching staff is obligated to, in coordination with partner institution, prepare presentation of ATUSS and prepare set of lectures in the area of expertise (main area computing and information technology).

Through project, one participant is covered with:

- Funds for 7 days of stay – 1.260 euros
- One funded day for travel – 180 euros
- Travel costs – 360 euros
- Additional organization support from the project – 250 euros.

Knowledge of the English language is a prerequisite, while knowledge of the Russian language is considered an advantage.

Your mobility must be finished till July the 30th 2024.

Your application must be sent to: mobilnost@atuss.edu.rs till March the 30th.

If more applications than places are submitted, ATUSS Rules guide for ranking will be applied.

*Yours,
Erasmus office of ATUSS*